

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DOUGLAS O'CONNOR,
Plaintiff,
v.
LYFT, INC.,
Defendant.

Case No. 16-cv-00351-JSW

ORDER STRIKING LETTER BRIEFS
AND REFERRING DISCOVERY
DISPUTES TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Re: Dkt. Nos. 40-42

The Court has received three letter briefs from the parties outlining discovery disputes. The Court STRIKES each of those letter briefs, because they demonstrate that each side had not yet provided their respective positions on these issues. The parties shall re-submit these disputes by way of a true joint letter brief.

In addition, the Court exercises its discretion to refer the disputes outlined in the letter briefs, and all further discovery disputes to a randomly assigned magistrate judge. See N.D. Civ. L.R. 72-1. If the Magistrate Judge believes an extension of the current deadlines is necessary to resolve this dispute, the Court will grant such an extension upon request.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

JEFFREY S. WHITE
United States District Judge
